

Collaborative Divorce Nashville presents: Mental Health Professionals as Resources for Families and Professionals in Collaborative Divorce

Who? Julia A. McAninch, licensed Psy.D, President Elect of International Academy of Collaborative Professionals, Rule 31 Mediator, Trainer for the Institute of Family Conflict Resolution, Past President of Collaborative Divorce Nashville.

What? Dr. McAninch will bring us information on the crossroads of mental health and divorce. Dr. McAninch will share information on the collaborative divorce process and benefits of working in this model; as well as share basic information about mental health providers and the benefits of working with a mental health provider in a variety of ways within family matters. The presentation will include some case examples to illustrate how understanding some basics about mental health can benefit family law lawyers.

When? September 28, 2022 at 5:00 p.m.

Where? Vertis Green Hills,
4000 Hillsboro Pike,
Nashville TN, 37215

Cost? CDN Members: Free
Non-Members: $50